

School based support from the R time consultants to enable the benefits of R time to be maximised in your school.

What do we offer?

R time consultants can provide support in schools in a range of areas:

1. Implementing R time, to maximise its potential.
2. R time and its role in supporting the SEAL Primary National Strategy.
3. Behaviour management across the school – using Greg Sampson’s new programme – Simply Behave!
4. Lunch times to enjoy – using Greg’s new programme – the Green Card Code.
5. Supporting transition – primary to secondary.
6. New programme for secondary students – “Negotiate”.

What will it cost?

If you want to invite one of us to visit your school the following costs apply:

1. Teacher day/half day. (You could share the cost with other schools in your area).
Full day - £350 + travel expenses. Half day - £250 + travel expenses.
2. Twilight staff meeting (up to 45 minutes).
£70 + travelling expenses. Over 45 minutes £100 + travelling expenses.
3. Consultant demonstrates the programme in your school + staff meeting.
£50 per class – half hour per session. Staff meeting as above.
Please note minimum of £250 for the day, or £150 for half day.
4. Lesson observations by the consultant once the programme has been operating for a period of time (usually one month).
Observations to involve written/verbal feedback. Cost £40 per observation + travel.
5. Negotiating special rates for other scenarios to be discussed with individual consultants e.g. small village schools or very large primary schools.
6. T time training by negotiation with Pete Harvey.

(Please note travelling expenses will be charged at 40p per mile. All mileage calculated from Leicester or Truro). If an overnight stay is necessary this will be charged at a maximum of £50 per night).
